

Winter 25-26 Term

November 16-February 6

General Info

Winter term is an informal, member led term. Just like our formal terms, members will complete registration and payment before the term begins. If you have any questions about a program, please contact the host/facilitator directly. Contact information can be found in the attached directory.

Registration

Everyone planning to participate needs to complete a membership form/family → Here You need this completed by Oct. 22 to be able to register for programs.

Current Members: Oct. 23rd-25th

New Members: Oct. 24th – 25th

Payment period: Oct. 31st -Nov. 7th

During the dates above, you will fill out one form PER PERSON to sign each person in your family up for programs. That link will be emailed to you on the first day of your registration window.

Membership levels

Current members: Free membership plus program fees. Your Fall membership fee covers the winter, too.

New members: $20 per family membership plus program fees.

Memberships are per family. Program fees are per person unless otherwise listed.

Refund Policy

PBJh has a no-refund policy.

Target Ages

Each program offered includes "target ages." These are the ages of participants that the program is targeted at. If someone in your family is outside that age range but still interested in the program, please contact the facilitator of that program to see if your request can be accommodated.

Multiple Meetings

Fitness & Friends by Janeen

When: Mon/Wed 10-11

Where: Midland

Cost: $8/person

Size: 5-500

Attendance: is irrelevant.

Age: 5-99

Join friends twice a week to get your circulation pumping. This park has a playground, a resistance circuit, and a walking path. I'll bring equipment too. This choose-your-own adventure workout will be a great way to stay connected, keep your body moving through the holidays, and enjoy some natural vitamin D. Kids under 5 welcome, no registration needed.

Cardboard Creators Club by Lacy & Hailey

When: Tuesdays 10-1

Where: Midland Downtown Library

Cost: $30/participant

Size: 6-30

Attendance: is irrelevant.

Age: 5-18

We will gather once a week with friends to let our cardboard creativity fly! Show up to just let loose with all the things you need to make your next brilliant idea come to life! Cardboard cities, a tower?, a tank? Sign on up and show friends what you can make!

Note: There will be very sharp tools in this class. All children under 10 years old will only have access to sharp tools at cutting station via parent/supervisors direct assistance. Children over 10 with prior experience at home using sharp instruments, a signed waiver, and permission from parents will have ability to use cardboard cutters on their own. Parents with kids under 10 need to stay. Kids under 5 by facilitator approval only. Six classes-see calendar for which Tuesdays.

Tumbling by Kyli

When: Tuesdays 2-3

Where: Goodman Gardens

Cost: $40/person

Size: 2-10

Attendance: is important.

Age: 4-14

Flips & Tricks Tumbling with Kyli is a beginner-friendly tumbling and movement class that combines fun, fitness, and foundational skill-building. Students will explore the exciting world of tumbling and acro basics — from rolls and bridges to handstands, cartwheels, and simple aerial progressions — all while developing strength, coordination, balance, and confidence. By the end of the 8 sessions, students will have mastered key beginner tumbling techniques, gained body awareness, and developed the confidence to safely explore more advanced movement.

Note: $5/person drop-ins are welcomed.
